IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY: NAGPUR BENCH:NAGPUR
CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.2902 OF 2006
Mukharu Kanhuji Chudhari versus
State of Maharashtra

Mr. N. R. Saboo, Advocate for the applicant
Mr. Jichkar, A. P. P. for state

CORAM: S. R. DONGAONKAR, J.
DATE: 19.9.2006
Heard Shri Saboo, Advocate for the appliant and Shri Jichkar, A. P. P. for respondent- State.

This court by order dated 5.9.2006 has ordered an ad-interim anticipatory bail to the applicant.

The learned counsel for the respondent has contended that the applicant has failed to produce his original licence and other relevant documents before the Invesigating Officer during the investigation and also that there were several complaints against this accused of similar nature earlier to the registration of the offence against him.

The learned counsel for the applicant assurs the court that the applicant would produce all the documents which are necessary for the purpose of investigation before the Investigating Officer, if he demands. According to him some documents are with the Tahsildar and the Investigating Officer may take into possession those documents from the office of the Tahsildar, if necessary. Further according to him there are no such complaints earlier to this incident and in fact his son has been already arrested for this ofence.

In these circumstances, considering the assurance of the learned counsel for the paplicant, there is nothing on record for not confirming the interim order of this court. Hence the following order:

The accused/applicant, in the event of his arrest for the offence under section 7 read with sectijon 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, in Crime No.3061/2006 registered by the Police Station Gadchiroli, be released on bail on his furnishing P. R. Bond and surety of Rs.25,000/-, subject to condition that he shall make himself available for the investigatijon as and when directed by the Investigating Officer and further the accused shall not directlyor indirectly tamper with the prosecution evidence.

Application stands disposed of accordingly.

JUDGE

smp.